

APIC[®] Member Profiles

| | IP in patient care setting | IP in non-patient care setting | Consultant (Independent) | Researcher/Academic* | Consultant (Industry) | Industry representative | Other relevant stakeholder orgs representatives |
|--------------------------------|---|---|---|---|--|---|---|
| Functions/job responsibilities | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop policies and procedures Surveillance and monitoring Serve on internal infection prevention committee or other related committees such as patient safety, environmental safety and emergency preparedness Provide education and in-service training | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provides epidemiologic and surveillance leadership and expertise, primarily focusing on chronic diseases Publishes reports and presentations Analyzes and interprets health status and health care data | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assist with development of infection control plans and programs Analyze your facility's infection surveillance data to determine issues, priorities and potential interventions Identify high risk areas and guide your facility in the development of prevention strategies Develop and/or provide in-service classes to your staff on topics relevant to infection control | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Primary focus is conducting research on infection prevention topic, public health, epidemiology Educator | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contributes medical and scientific content expertise to the development and execution of regional and national educational activities. Provides scientific, technical, and clinical education associated with use or evaluation of products or services to healthcare professionals and clinical staff. Prepare/deliver scientific research, clinical presentations, and collateral educational materials | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Marketing and sales Product development Business development | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Development of national or state policy Professional management of an organization |
| Titles | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Infection preventionist (IP) ASC administrator Asst. director of nursing Clinical director Medical technologists | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Epidemiologist Infection preventionist (IP) Nurse consultant Public health nurse | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Infection prevention/control consultant | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Associate dean Associate professor Research nurse | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Epidemiologist Infection prevention specialist | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Account executive Business development executive Director of Marketing or Sales Product manager Sales Associate | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Surveyor Chief clinical officer Executive director |
| Employer | Hospital or patient care provider | Department of health | Self-employed or employed by an independent consulting group | Academic institution | For-profit company offering or developing commercial products and services for healthcare facilities and professionals | For-profit company offering or developing commercial products and services for healthcare facilities and professionals | Government or regulatory agency; association |
| Member category | Active | Active | Active | Active or Associate* | Associate | Associate | Associate |

This table is provided as a general guide to application of membership categories and is not all inclusive. If you have questions, please contact the Member Services Team at membership@apic.org.

(September 2013 update)